

E-safety web links

Safety advice

NGfL advice

<http://safety.ngfl.gov.uk/schools>

Becta advice

www.becta.org.uk/schools/esafety

Milly's Fund – a range of child safety programmes, including Teach UR Mum 2 TXT

www.millysfund.org.uk

Kidscape – organisation that seeks protect children from bullying and child abuse. Includes sections for parents and children/young people.

www.kidscape.org.uk/childrenteens/cyberbullying.shtml

Online safety

Childnet – an organisation that aims to make the internet an enjoyable and safe place for children

www.childnet-int.org

BBC – Webwise – a guide to using the internet

www.bbc.co.uk/webwise/

CEOP site – (Child Exploitation and Online Protection centre) this is primarily a law enforcement organisation that coordinates with a wide range of other bodies and agencies (established 2006). It allows online reporting of incidents and has advice for children and adults. Currently the interface uses a lot of plain text and is not very child-friendly, but hopefully it will develop and improve over time.

www.thinkuknow.co.uk/

Children go online - project exploring the nature and meaning of children's internet use

www.children-go-online.net

Teachers' and parents' guide to online child safety (from BT), includes some useful worksheets and some background statistics

www.broadbandsecurity.bt.com/img/teacherparentguide.pdf

Mobile phone safety

Home Office website to advise young people on how to protect themselves from mobile phone crime.

www.outofyourhands.com

Milly's Fund – a range of child safety programmes, including Teach UR Mum 2 TXT

www.millysfund.org.uk

To download the B-aware! mobile phone safety project materials (from the body set up to provide a framework for classifying mobile content unsuitable for under-18s).

www.imcb.org.uk

Website run by National Children's Homes and Tesco to educate young people about text bullying.

www.stoptextbully.com