Declaratory words

Shown below are the legal words which have to be included in your ceremony. These words cannot be amended in any way.

I declare that I know of no legal reason why we may not register as each other's Civil Partner. I understand that on signing this document, we will be forming a Civil Partnership with each other.

Vows

Shown below are vows that you may wish to make to each other. Please indicate which words you would like to say:

A I pledge to share my life openly with I promise to cherish and tenderly care for you, to honour and encourage you. I will respect you as an individual and be true to you through good times and bad. To these things, I give my word.

B I choose you, above all others to share my life. I promise to honour this pledge as long as I live.

Vows chosen A B or We do not wish to exchange Vows

Would you like to be formally given away during the ceremony? Yes No

If yes, by whom?

Below is an idea of the additional vows you can make to each other if you would like to. As these are not legal words they can be amended to suit you or you can write your own vows. Please show any amendments before you return this form.

I have chosen you to be my partner.

I promise to always love you, laugh with you through our good times, and to comfort you through the bad. I will support you in all that you do and walk alongside you, hand in hand, as we journey down our life's path. Above all, I will always be your best friend.

Would you like to exchange these extra vows?

Yes No We have our own (maximum 100 words)

Exchange of ring words

The words for exchange of rings shown below are suggestions, these can be altered or you can write your own
