

South Hill Park – How to find us.

South Hill Park is situated in the Birch Hill area of Bracknell about 6km south of the town centre. The Arts Centre is well signposted from all approaches by following the brown tourist signs, either with the name on or the theatre mask.

Directions from the M4

Exit the M4 at junction 10 and follow the A329M towards Bracknell until it joins the A329 Berkshire Way. Follow the Berkshire Way as far as the Twin Bridges Roundabout before taking the A3095 Mill Lane towards Crowthorne and Sandhurst. At the second roundabout after Twin Bridges, take the second exit Hanworth Road and then turn left immediately. South Hill Park is 600m along on the right.

Directions from M3

Exit the M3 at junction 3 and follow the A322 north towards Bracknell. Stay on A322 for approx 6km until reaching the traffic light controlled roundabout by Sainsbury's and the Hilton Hotel. Turn left at the lights and at the first mini roundabout turn right past the entrance to the hotel. South Hill Park is 500m on the left

Public Transport

Bracknell Railway station is 5km from South Hill Park on the edge of the town centre. Bracknell is on the Reading/Waterloo line. Trains run every hour on a Sunday. The bus station is next to the train station. South Hill Park is served by the 172 service, which runs hourly on a Sunday

Car Parking

Car Parking at South Hill Park is limited on the day of the Half Marathon, and is available on a first come first served basis (200 spaces) Alternative car parking is available at Birch Hill Shops, approx 100 metres from the Arts Centre. This will be signed on the day.
