Hi, the only comment I have to make about the Plan is that no recommendations are shown for the three junctions into the proposed 235 properties in Hayley Green. What are the road improvements, traffic lights, chicanes, or speed humps?

Also as the Bracknell road is sparsely populated, surely a second access rather than via Cricketers lane would make sense.

Also the Forest road is now continuously busy and adding cars from 235 properties is never going to improve matters. Despite a 30 mph speed limit, it is still frequently plagued by boy racers and bikers.

Hayley Green Lane is barely wide enough to take traffic, especially when the Play School is opening and closed every day during term time.

And finally, how can any member of the general public be expected to read and even understand a document and comment on one as technical and lengthy as the Published Consultation Plan. If I worked in a Planning Industry it would make sense. Why on earth isn't a simplified version published so that Jo Public can understand what is planned?
